

RAID IN BROOKLYN YIELDS DRUGS AND SMALL ARSENAL

Detectives Say They Have Alleged Murder Suspect—
Much Cocaine Seized.

Six members of the Italian detective squad, under command of Detective Sergt. Mike Flanchetti, early this morning raided two houses in Brooklyn and seized $25,000 worth of cocaine in various forms. Italian daggers, pistols and revolvers also were seized, and one man, whom they accuse of the murder of Joseph Messina, No. 150 Elizabeth Street, in a fight over cocaine on April 17 last, was arrested.

The raid followed a long search by detectives for an alleged ring which has been distributing cocaine, heroin, morphine and other narcotics. The hunt led to the home of Giovanni Mauro, No. 160 Carroll Street, where they arrested Giovanni and his son Louis. Here they say that they found two cases of cocaine valued at $175,000, several daggers and pistols and revolvers.

After arresting the Mauros the detectives went to No. 170 Carroll Street, where they arrested Giuseppe Gargaro, whom they formally charged with having shot and killed Messina last April. Gargaro has not confessed to the shooting.

In the Gargaro house the detectives found, they assert, two suit cases filled with various kinds of drugs valued at $75,000, revolvers, daggers and pistols.

According to the statement of the detectives the three men are the ring leaders in an organized band of drug sellers who have been dealing with young girls and young men in this city and Philadelphia. The police declare that the drug has been coming to these men on vessels, the last consignment, worth many thousands, having come here in a Norwegian steamer.

All three men and the drug and weapons seized in the raid were taken to Police Headquarters, Manhattan.

STROUDSBURG, Pa., June 22.—Politicians were surprised to-day when it became known that Attorney General Palmer had sold his paper, the Stroudsburg Times-Democrat. Who the purchasers are it is not definitely known, but Nelson A. Frantz, manager of the Record, a rival paper bitterly opposed to the Attorney General, took charge of the Times-Democrat to-day.
